

- 8 MAR 1991

Date . . . . .

NEVILLE JEFFERESS/PIDLER PVT LTD

● Michelle Shocked . . . win passes to see her Brisbane concert.

Get your entries in — quick as a wink

MIUSIC loving readers can make sure they have tickets to two of this month's hottest concerts simply by entering our great concert giveaway competition.

To celebrate the Brisbane concert dates of Michelle Shocked and the Jeff Healey Band, the Queensland Times is giving away three double passes to each of the concerts.

To enter is easy. Just answer a simple question about the artist and send your entry in.

Texan singer Michelle Shocked will perform at Brisbane's Mayne Hall on March 20.

Tickets for the March 20 concert are available from the Festival Hall Booking office, by phone charging on (07) 229 7788 or from Rocking Horse Record's Brisbane store on (07) 229 5360.

■ The Jeff Healey Band is set to return to Australia later this month following the release of their second album "Hell to Pay".

The band last visited Australian shores in 1989 for promotional purposes and also played two sold out concerts in Sydney and Melbourne.

The band's first album "See the Light" has now sold close to two million copies world wide.

The new album "Hell to Pay" captures the excitement of the band's live performances and at its best in the studio.

The Jeff Healey Band will perform at Brisbane's Festival Hall on March 23.

Tickets are available from the Festival Hall Booking office or by phone charging on (07) 229 7788.

Michelle Shocked competition:

To win, answer this simple question: "Where does the singer hail from?"

Put your answer on the back of an standard size envelope along with your name, age, address and a contact phone number and send this to the Michelle Shocked competition, c/-The Queensland Times, PO Box 260, Ipswich 4305.

Entries for both competitions close in the first mail next Thursday and winners will be announced in next Friday's Entertainer.

Jeff Healey Band competition:

To win, answer this simple question: "When was the last time the band visited Australia?"

Put your answer on the back of an standard size envelope along with your name, age, address and a contact phone number and send this to the Jeff Healey Band competition, c/-The Queensland Times, PO Box 260, Ipswich 4305.

Entries for both competitions close in the first mail next Thursday and winners will be announced in next Friday's Entertainer.