

Bar Beat

Michelle Shocked to play in stage box

Michelle Shocked and her band, Casualties of Law, are expected to rivet the crowd June 18, in the Jackson Hole High School gym.

"Michelle works the stage like no one else does," says concert promoter Steve Chichinsky of Frontier Productions. The gym seats up to 1,600 people.

Chichinsky and his group are bringing in a high-fidelity sound system and first-class light show.

Shocked will sing from a boxed off stage to prevent feedback from echoes, and the audience will be given cottonballs to stuff in their ears to help with the acoustic problems.

Tickets are on sale at Tobacco Row and Global Exchange. They cost $18.50 in advance, and $21 on day of show. Doors open at 7 p.m.

At Bistro 170, Larry Hestand and Mary Kathryn Severin play jazz every Tuesday, and Wednesday. Jean Dailey plays Thursday. Justin Allison plays jazz with a Brazilian influence on Friday and Saturday. Musicians play 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. (733-2628)

At the Cowboy Bar, Thoroughbred takes the stage June 14 - 26. (733-2207)

At Dornan's, The Hootenanny, a night of acoustic music featuring you, your friends, $2-a-slice pizza and Teton Tea, begins at 7 p.m. Monday nights. (733-2415)

At JJ's Silver Dollar Bar, rag-time piano is the evening focus

Michelle Shocked and her band play at the high school this Friday.

Tuesday through Saturday. (733-2190)

At the Mangy Moose, Jambay plays funky hippie stuff June 18, 19. (733-9779)

At the Rancher, the Matt McKinney Band plays through the weekend. (733-3886)

At the Shady Lady, the Larry Hestand Trio with vocalist Mary Kathryn Severin play jazz June 17, 18, 19. White Bean Chilly plays June 16. Music starts at 9 p.m. (733-5200)

At Spirits, acoustic open mike night is held every Wednesday. Enjoy Karaoke on Thursday and Monday nights. (733-3854)

At the Stagecoach Bar in Wilson, the Stagecoach Band rides shotgun with the West on Sundays. (733-4407)

— J.W.